Programmes, important among which are the Centrally sponsored scheme of Integrated Rural Development Programme (IRDP), Jawahar Rozgar Yojana (JRY) and Nehru Rozgar Yojana (NRY) and the Central Sector Schemes of Self-Employment for Educated Unemployed Youth (SEEUY). These schemes are being continued in the Eighth Plan in the State of Arunachal Pradesh as in other States.

Child Labour in Bangle and Glass Factorits

3601. SHRI VIREN J. SHAH:
SHRI PRAMOD MAHAJAN:

Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the reports published in the Economic Times of 5th August, 1993 under the caption "failure to implement labour laws flayed";

(b) if so, whether it is fact that about 50,000 child workers are working under "gruesome plight" in the glass and bangle industry of Ferozabad in U.P. and what are the details in this regard; and

(c) what steps Government have taken against the exploitation of child labour in the country?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISRY OF LABOUR (SHRI P. A. SANGMA): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) The 1981 Census does not indicate industry-wise number of child labour. 1991 Census figures pertaining to child labour are not yet available. However, it is a fact that children are working in the glass and bangle industries of Ferozabad. A National Child Labour Project has been taken up in Ferozabad to cover these children through 10 Special Schools. Steps taken to combat exploitation of child labour have been mentioned in answer to Rajya Sabha Starred Question No. 16 for 26.7.93.
